

Elite has been on a growth curve the past year and we now feel that we are ready to step into other markets

We'd like to explore opportunities to collaborate with you to build a business portfolio that would fuel our growth as well as yours. We are looking for partners who can be our business development arm in

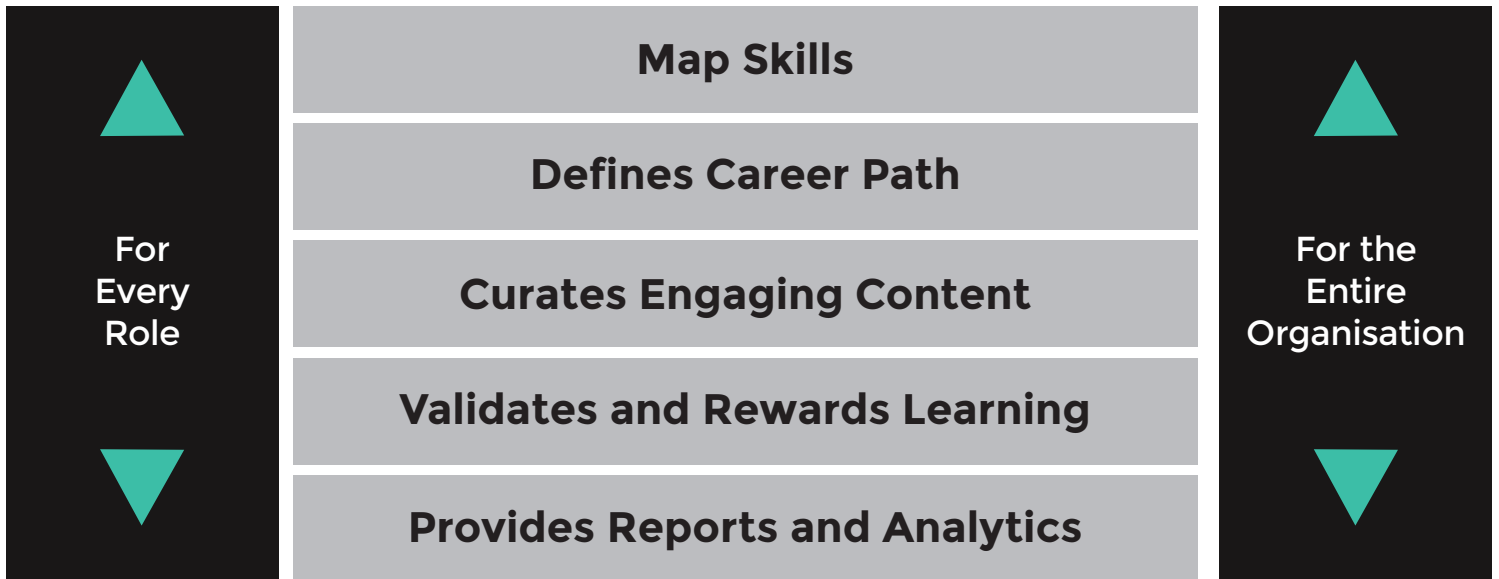

North America, Europe, East Asia, South Africa and the Middle East

Here's a brief look at what is Elite

Elite is an AI-powered skill management system that empowers organizations to identify skill gaps and mitigate them.

The system is easy to adopt and extremely efficient. We've seen that team's using Elite have an increased learning engagement of 85%+.

You could market Elite as a standalone solution or even club it with other products or solutions you already market. As Elite is easy to use and economical it can give you a competitive edge.
